- 4.8 To acquire or hire property of any kind.
- 4.9 To let or dispose of property on any kind (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act 1993).
- 4.10 To make grants or loans of money and to give guarantees.
- 4.11 To set aside funds for special purposes or as reserves against future expenditure.
- 4.12 To deposit or invest funds in any manner (but to invest only after obtaining advice from a financial expert and having regard to the suitability of investments and the need for diversification).
- 4.13 To delegate the management of investments to a financial expert, but on terms that:
- (a) the investment policy is set down in writing for the financial expert by the Trustees.
 - (b) every transaction is reported promptly to the Trustees.
 - (c) the performance of the investments is reviewed regularly with the Trustees.
 - (d) the Trustees are entitled to cancel the delegation arrangement at any time.
 - (e) the investment policy and the delegation arrangement are viewed at least once a year.
 - (f) all payments due to the financial expert are on scale or at a level which is agreed in advance and are notified promptly to the Trustees on receipt.
 - (g) the financial expert must not do anything outside the powers of the Trustees.
- 4.14 To arrange for investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee (being a corporate body registered or having an established place of business in England and Wales) under the control of the Trustees or of a financial expert acting under their instructions and to pay any reasonable fee required.
- 4.15 To insure the property of the Charity against any foreseeable risk and take out other insurance policies to protect the Charity when required.

- 4.16 To ensure the Trustees against the costs of a successful defence to a criminal prosecution brought against them as charity trustees or against personal liability incurred in respect of any act or omission which is or is alleged to be a breach of trust or breach of duty, unless the Trustee concerned knew that, or was reckless whether, the act or omission was a breach of trust or breach of duty.
- 4.17 Subject to clause 5, to employ paid or unpaid agents, staff or advisers.
- 4.18 To enter into contracts to provide services to or on behalf of other bodies.
- 4.19 To establish subsidiary companies to assist or act as agents for the Charity.
- 4.20 To pay the costs of forming the Charity.
- 4.21 To do anything else within the law which promotes or helps to promote the Objects.

5 Benefits to Members and Trustees

- 5.1 The property and funds of the Charity must be only used for promoting the Object and do not belong to the members of the Charity but:
- (a) members who are not Trustees may be employed by or enter into contracts with the Charity and receive reasonable payments for goods or services supplied.
 - (b) members (including Trustees) may be paid interest at a reasonable rate on money lent to the Charity.
 - (c) members (including Trustees) may be paid a reasonable rents or hiring fee for property let or hired to the Charity.
 - (d) Individual members who are not Trustees but who are beneficiaries may receive charitable benefits in that capacity.
- 5.2 A Trustee must not receive any payment of money or other material benefit (whether directly or indirectly) from the Charity except:
- (a) as mentioned in clauses 4.16, 5.1(b), 5.1(c) or 5.3

- (b) reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including hotel and travel costs) actually incurred in running the Charity.
- (c) an indemnity in respect of any liabilities properly incurred in running the Charity (including the costs of a successful defence to criminal proceedings).
- (d) payment to any company in which a Trustee has no more than a 1 percent shareholding.
- (e) in exceptional cases, other payments or benefits (but only with the written approval of the Commission in advance).

5.3 Any Trustee (or any firm or company of which a Trustee is a member or employee) may enter into a contract with the Charity to supply goods or services in return for a payment or other material benefit but only if:

- (a) the goods or services are actually required by the Charity
- (b) the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services and is set in accordance with the procedure in clause 5.4.
- (c) no more than one half of the Trustees are subject to such a contract in any financial year.

5.4 When a Trustee has a personal interest in a matter to be discussed at a meeting of the Trustees or a Trustee concerned must:

- (a) declare an interest at or before discussion begins on the matter.
- (b) withdraw from the meeting for that item unless expressly invited to remain in order to provide information.
- (c) Not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting.
- (d) Withdraw during the vote and have no vote in the matter.

5.5 This clause may not be amended without the prior written consent of the Commission.

6 Limited Liability

The Liability of members is limited.

7 Guarantee

Every member promises, if the Charity is dissolved while he, she or it remains a member or within 12 months afterwards, to pay up to £1 towards the costs of dissolution and the liabilities incurred by the Charity while the contributor was a member.

8 Dissolution

8.1 If the Charity is dissolved the assets (if any) remaining after provision has been made for all its liabilities must be applied in one or more of the following ways:

- (a) by transfer to one or more other bodies established for exclusively charitable purpose within, the same as or similar to the Objects
- (b) directly for the Objects or charitable purpose within or similar to the Objects
- (c) in such other manner consistent with charitable status as the Commission approves in writing in advance

8.2 A final report and statement of account must be sent to the Commission

9 Interpretation

9.1 Words and expressions defined in the Articles have the same meanings in this Memorandum

9.2 References to an Act of Parliament are references to the Act as amended or re-enacted from time to time and to any subordinate legislation made under it

We wish to be formed into a company under this Memorandum of Association

 - (a) applies to the Charity in the form required by the Trustees
 - (b) is approved by the Trustees and
 - (c) signs the Register of members or consents in writing to become a member either personally or (in the case of a member organisation) through an authorised representative
- 1.4 The Trustees may establish different classes of membership and prescribe their respective privileges and duties and set the amounts of any subscriptions
- 1.5 Membership is terminated if the member concerned:
 - (a) gives written notice of resignation to the Charity
 - (b) dies or (in the case of an organisation) ceases to exist
 - (c) is six months in arrears in paying the relevant subscription (if any) (but in such a case the member may be reinstated on payment of the amount due) or
 - (d) having been a Trustee, ceases to be a Trustee
- 1.6 Membership of the Charity is not transferable

2 General Meetings

- 2.1 members are entitled to attend general meetings either personally or (in case of a member organisation) by an authorised representative. General meetings are called on at least 21 clear days written notice specifying the business to be discussed.
- 2.2 There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of members or authorised representatives personally present is at least four
- 2.3 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other member elected by those present presides at a general meeting
- 2.4 Except where otherwise provided by the Act, every issue is decided by a majority of the votes cast
- 2.5 Except for the chairman of the meeting, who has a second or casting vote, every member present in person or through an authorised representative has one vote on each issue
- 2.6 A written resolution signed by all those entitled to vote at a general meeting is as valid as a resolution actually passed at a general meeting (and for this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature.
- 2.7 The Charity must hold an AGM in every year which all members are entitled to attend. The first AGM may be held within 18 months after the Charity's incorporation
- 2.8 At an AGM the members:
 - (a) receive the accounts of the Charity's for the previous financial year
 - (b) receive the Trustees' report in the Charity's activities since the previous AGM
 - (c) accept the retirement of those Trustees who wish to retire
 - (d) appoint auditors for the Charity
 - (e) may confer on any individual (with his or her consent) the honorary title of Patron, President or Vice-President of the Charity and
 - (f) discuss and determine any issues of policy or deal with any other business put before them
- 2.9 Any general meeting which is not an AGM is an EGM

- 2.10 An EGM may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called within 28 days on a written request from at least four members

3 The Trustees

- 3.1 The Trustees as charity trustees have control of the Charity and its property and funds
- 3.2 There shall be at all times a minimum of six Trustees and maximum of twelve and the subscribers to the Memorandum shall be the first Trustees of the Charity
- 3.3 Every Trustee must sign a declaration of willingness to act as a charity trustee of the Charity before he or she is eligible to vote at any meeting of the Trustees
- 3.4 All Trustees shall be appointed (or reappointed) for a maximum term of office of three years
- 3.5 A Trustee whose term of office ends may be reappointed (any number of times) for a further term of office in accordance with article 3.4
- 3.6 A Trustee's term of office automatically terminates if he or she:
- (a) is disqualified under the Charities Act 1993 from acting as a charity trustee
 - (b) is incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing his or her own affairs
 - (c) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Trustees
 - (d) ceases to be a member
 - (e) resigns by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least six Trustees will remain in office) or
 - (f) is removed by resolution passed by a majority of the other Trustees present and voting at a meeting after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views
- 3.7 The Trustees may at any time appoint any person to be a Trustee and shall fix his or her term of office in accordance with article 3.4
- 3.8 A technical defect in the appointment of a Trustee of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting

4 Proceedings of Trustees

- 4.1 The Trustees must hold at least two meetings each year
- 4.2 A quorum at a meeting of the Trustees is four Trustees
- 4.3 A meeting of the Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all other participants
- 4.4 The Chairman or (if the Chairman is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting
- 4.5 Every issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting but a written resolution signed by all the Trustees is a valid as a resolution passed at a meeting (and for this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature
- 4.6 Except for the chairman of the meeting, who has a second or casting vote, every Trustee has one vote on each issue
- 4.7 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting
